Feelin' Alright in The Midnight Hour!

bio

Take some good old blues and R&B, rock it out and funk it up, add a dash of country and a splash of soul...and what do you get? THE RAMBLERS! Formed in 2005 at Red House Studios as a blues band, The Ramblers have evolved into an eclectic live act, playing blues and R&B standards you know well along with hidden gems you'll wish you'd heard sooner. The Ramblers love to play, whether it's singing the blues at San Francisco's venerable Saloon and Armando's in Martinez, playing danceable R&B at places like North Beach's Grant & Green Saloon and Belmont's St. James Gate, or entertaining at fundraisers and other events around the Bay and beyond. So if you're looking to feel alright in the midnight hour, check out The Ramblers!
